

LOVERDOSE

THE NEW FRAGRANCE

DIESEL

A spellbinding essence that makes the woman who wears it irresistible, and the man who comes near her fall madly in love... A new, subversive, unexpected women's perfume. A true DIESEL signature.

AN ICONIC BOTTLE

A heart of precious glass with ever-shifting pink-amethyst highlights. A detail like a secret: the black dagger piercing it. Cut like a diamond, the LOVERDOSE bottle can be stood up in three different positions.

WOODY ORIENTAL WITH A LIQUORICE HEART

Honorine Blanc and Olivier Cresp created this fatal attraction in a glass bottle, total alchemy that puts our senses in peril.

The base notes feature the spellbinding warmth of vanilla infusion mingling with ambrox. Creamy liquorice liqueur mixes with woody scents. That is the addictive, unprecedented vapour trail that makes LOVERDOSE intense and unforgettable.

There's a rumor going around that, due to the presence of secret Molecule A, the formula's alchemy causes an addiction to absolute love, extreme passion and an irrational, uncontrollable enflaming of the senses....
